Dear Joshua:

I am sorry you had not heard about the Bernstein/s. They were staying in the Sheraton in Cairo on the night of the fire, and were killed by the smoke and flames. Enclosed is a copy of the letter their lawyer and Sheva's sister had sent on the subject of a memorial; also enclosed is a copy of a talk I gave at the Princeton Jewish Center at a memorial service. It was a terrible tragedy, and even all these weeks later I find it difficult to come to terms with what happened.

All good wishes,

Yours,

Theodore K. Rabb
